

THE ARCADIAN

A great challenge lies ahead for planners of education. The census report confirms the fact that secondary school enrollments within the next five years will far outpace existing facilities. Our administrative group has planned for the future and is constantly alert to discover the needs of the youth and the needs of our community. They have given untiringly of their time and effort in the construction of the new building. They are always looking forward to greater things in education, realizing that a community is no better than its schools.

There is little agreement among educators about the school program of the future. The administration has made its building and curriculum flexible to allow for all sorts of revisions and changes within the shell. To do less would be to straight-jacket the constantly developing secondary school program.

Foreword

In this 1953 Arcadian we have tried to cover fully the highlights of the school year.

It was prepared by many of the Seniors and Juniors, with the help of the faculty, in the hope that it will serve you as a diary of the events of the past year at Arcadia Local School.

We hope that you will enjoy this yearbook immensely and read it with warm feeling toward our student body.

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1953, dedicate this edition of the Arcadian to Mr. Charley Groth, advisor of the Arcadian annual staff for the past nine years. Through his faithful leadership a new and improved annual has been published each year.

ANNUAL STAFF

Each year the annual staff tries to publish a yearbook that is a little different and a little more interesting than the year before. They have made a few changes which they hope will meet with your approval.

The classes were divided from the fifth through the twelfth grades into eight teams, each having a high school teacher for a captain. To provide more competition, we used the names of the successful candidates in the recent election as the team names. The winning team will be rewarded with a party sponsored by the Senior Class. Mrs. Covert's team won the contest. Her team was entitled Rep. Jackson Betts and her assistant was Richard Smith. The three high salesmen were to receive free annuals but due to a tie four free annuals were awarded. The four winners were Charles Groth, Derol Painter, David Cardwell, and Arvid Weaver.

"Onward Toward a Higher Aim"

Four years to go and goal in sight,
We chose our flower the carnation white,
And "Old Rose and Silver" lead us through our school days bright.

Some have faltered and fallen from strife,
Giving up when the pace seemed slow,
But others "Onward Toward a Higher Aim" still go.

We entered the last year with goal in sight,
Twenty-one entered to finish the fight.
We worked faithfully and struggled to capture the goal,
For success we learned, one must pay the toll.
We want to drink from the victor's cup,
And smile with the rest when the time is up.

Farewell to teachers and to our friends,
Farewell to the twelve happy years we've spent.
May the Lord bless each one and all,
And help us to share and not let us fall.
We shall always remember for real gain,
Our motto, "Onward Toward a Higher Aim."

—Shirley Lenhart

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1941, the future graduating class of 1953 came to school for the first time. Twelve years ago each of us lived in his own world. But then, we came to school—some of us didn't want to come. We didn't want to leave our own small worlds. But our curiosities and our wonderings pushed us out and on.

Gradually we progressed in the following years. When we reached the fifth and sixth grades, our class had several members in the Elementary Chorus and several students had also joined the band and orchestra.

Then came the day we had long awaited—we were promoted upstairs with the high school. In the seventh and eighth grades we learned to do without recesses and managed to get used to going from room to room for our different classes. We were also given those memorable eighth grade tests.

FRESHMEN at last! Oh, how grown-up we thought we were and how sophisticated until the fateful day—Initiation. We finally struggled through all the embarrassment of being "Greenies" and were really "in" at last. This first year in high school we joined in almost all of the scheduled activities. Our class officers were: President, Floyd Hissong; Vice President, Patsy Noel; Secretary, Shirley Lenhart; Treasurer, Larry Myers; and Reporter Janet Boes. For our class motto we chose: ONWARD TOWARD A HIGHER AIM. Our class colors: Old Rose and Silver, and our flower, the White Carnation. Also this first year we had two members from our class as Student Council representatives. They were Barbara Cramer and Marion Peters. This year Mr. Richard Reis was our class sponsor.

Next came the Sophomore year. We elected the following officers: President, Janet Boes; Vice President, Glen Saltzman; Secretary, Shirley Lenhart; Treasurer, Larry Myers; and Reporter, Floyd Hissong. Glen Saltzman and Janet Ziessler were the Student Council representatives. This year we had the pleasure of initiating the Freshmen. What a time we had making them recite their rituals! We also participated in the operetta, "The Gypsy Rover." This year two of our members were also elected as Cheerleaders. Again, Mr. Reis was our sponsor.

Our Junior year rolled around very quickly.

This year was very busy for us with the choosing of class rings, averaging grades for the Honor Society, presenting the Junior Play, "Quiet Summer," and last but not least, entertaining the Seniors at the Junior-Senior Banquet held May 17, at the Y. M. C. A. in Fostoria, Ohio. The class officers this year were: President, Glen Saltzman; Vice President, Jim Steyer; Secretary, Shirley Rainey; Treasurer, Floyd Hissong; and Reporter, Carl Ziessler. We elected Bob Good as Student Council representative. This year our class obtained a new sponsor, Mr. Robinson. We also helped in the publishing of the "Arcadian."

In the fall of the year 1952, we entered school for our last wonderful year. We were finally Seniors. The time had come for us to make decisions. This year we chose once again our class officers. They were: President, Glen Saltzman; Vice President, Jim Steyer; Secretary, Shirley Rainey; Treasurer, Floyd Hissong; and Reporter, Jim Warren. Student Council representatives were Janet Ziessler and Bob Good. Our Senior class sponsor was Mr. Robinson. This year we had the responsibility of seeing that "The Arcadian" was published. Again we showed our dramatic ability in presenting the Senior Play, "Nine Girls," under the direction of Mrs. Sharninghouse. We were also honored by having five members on the National Honor Society. The Juniors entertained us at the Junior-Senior Banquet held in May. Baccalaureate services were held Sunday, May 17. Commencement exercises were held the 21st of May. Dr. MacDonald, president of Bowling Green State University, gave the address. Out of the group of students who started school together, only eleven remain. We have acquired and lost several of our members during these twelve years.

Now we are standing on the threshold of the world. What it has in store for us, we do not know. The world is ready for us; we are ready for the world. We came to school, but now we are leaving. Once more we leave the security behind that we have built up in these past twelve years with our friends and teachers and we are stepping out into the world only to try to succeed and going ONWARD TOWARD A HIGHER AIM.

Shirley Rainey.

An Excerpt From The Lives Of The Senior Class of 1953. Ten Years Hence.

Carol Kuhn is the only smart one of the bunch. She got married and is now busily raising little tax deductions.

Jim Warren, the athletic one, is now playing for the "Globe Slobbers," which is the best Tidley Winks team in the country. He is their best Tidler.

Lanny Semler got fabulously rich by making a killing in the stock market. It seems that he invested in Amalgamated Tooth Pick just when the bottom fell out of his Jelly Bean Stock, making his holdings in National Door-nob increase 800%.

Shirley Lenhart has just realized her lifelong ambition of being a nurse. She is now the nurse of Dr. Von Hoopenshlimer, the famous tree surgeon.

Bob Good, the famous dairyman, has just created a boon to the Dairy Industry which will set it ahead 25 years. He has just invented a non-slip, non-tip, milk stool.

Carl Ziessler, the great mechanical genius, has just set the automotive industry ahead a century by inventing a car that doesn't use gas. He uses horses to pull it.

Glenn Saltzman was the one who wanted to become an Engineer. He's an Engineer all right. I see by the paper that he runs the Flatwheel Limited between Podunk and Flatbush.

Floyd Hissong had the ambition of becoming a great painter. He is now happily situated in his present employment, which is painting eyebrows on the dolls in the Findlay doll factory.

John Bushong has a very comfortable position in the White House. He is the best piano tuner they ever had.

John King has been with the French Foreign Legion for ten years. He decided on this secluded career as the result of a drastic happening in his life. Ten years ago he received a traffic ticket and decided to beat the rap by skipping the country.

Shirlee Farrell, the wealthy society matron has just traded in her eighth Cadillac for a new one. The windshield got dirty.

Richard Smith is now a prominent Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. He says he owes his entire success to the Commercial Law class he attended in school.

Janet Ziessler always had the fond ambition to work in a large business office. She now is filling a position at the office of a large New York lawyer. She is in charge of sharpening pencils and keeping the water cooler full.

Norma Ritter is now employed in the large chain store of "Rears and Soebuck". She sells chains.

Janet Boes decided to enter law after she graduated from high school. She is now a prominent lawyer and is famous for convicting her former school teacher for cruelty to dumb animals.

Peggy Fox, after graduating, decided that she would enter the field of Stereophotomicrography, but gave it up after she found that she couldn't spell it on her application form for the job. She now sells mop handles in a large department store.

Marilyn Plotts has become very famous as a popular song writer. Her latest song, "My tomato ran away, but I'll catchup with her," is doing very nicely in the number one spot on the hit parade.

Dick Kelley has opened a chain of candy stores all over the country. He said he is entranced by the sight of children straggling up to the counter with a penny to spend.

Pat Emerine has become very much interested in her present employment as a newspaper writer. She has her own very important job in a very famous newspaper. She numbers the pages.

Shirley Rainey organized a very prominent detective agency in Chicago. She calls it the Rainey Super Duper Snooper Agency.

Jim Steyer has been commissioned an Admiral in the U. S. Navy. He has command of a fleet of rowboats on the Blanchard River.

CLASS WILL

We, the SENIOR class of 1953, being unsound of mind and physically dilapidated, do hereby bequeath the following will and testament to our fellow inmates, hoping that it will make them happy and their later days easier.

To the teachers we extend our deepest regrets that we will not be here to entertain them in the years to come.

To the Juniors we will our SENIOR cell-blocks. (Home room No. 468392758493.)

To the Sophomores we will our play acting ability.

To the Freshmen: "Disinherited."

Carl Ziessler bequeaths his mechanical ability to Barbara Good.

Jim Warren wills his trouble with girls to Paul Thompson.

Peggy Fox transfers her athletic ability to Johnnie Diebley.

Glen Saltzman leaves his basketball sweat pants with Mary Weaver.

John King wills his ability to argue with teachers to Mary Dicken. Let's not overdo it, Mary.

Richard Smith wills his position as assistant soloist in the choir to Jim Woodward. Another person destined for fame.

Carol Kuhn bequeaths her quick temper to anyone who can control it better than she can.

Floyd Hissong leaves his speed to Ray Lazenby. Maybe we could start a track team.

Shirlee Farrell leaves her "Jim" to anyone who can handle him.

Jim Steyer transfers his immense collection of exotic, fabulous, and usually mis-placed words to Jack Eisaman.

Bob Good bequeaths his intensely, studious, attitude in Ag. class to Carol Reid, Oh, those project tours!

Lanny Semler wills his dramatic ability to LaVerne Shaull. You'll never need to worry now, Mrs. Sharninghouse.

John Bushong leaves his jokebook to anyone strong enough to carry all that corn around.

Janet Ziessler delivers her cute little "blush" to Lewie Campbell.

Patty Emerine transfers her property in Carey to Dalores Campbell.

Janet Boes wills her blond hair to Ronnie Stall. Now you won't have to bleach it, Ronnie.

Dick Kelley leaves his pet mice in the Candy room to the next candy room proprietor.

Shirley Lenhart bequeaths her junior girl friends to the Junior boys. You guys can handle them better than she can any way.

Shirley Rainey transfers her cafeteria position to Joe Steyer. Let's keep that line moving, Joe.

Norma Ritter gives her clerks position in Fostoria to Sharyn Peters.

Marilyn Plotts wills her capability of handling four subjects and two boy friends at the same time to Pat Butler.

SENIOR PLAY

The Senior play this year was a "spine thrilling" murder mystery, which demonstrated again that the female of the species is more deadly than the male—nine times more!

Under the direction of Irene Sharninghouse and aided by a very able cast of nine girls the play moved through two acts of excitement to a very satisfying conclusion.

JUNIOR PLAY

THE LITTLE DOG LAUGHED was presented by the JUNIOR CLASS, MARCH 27, 1953. The story centers around the Huntington family. Laurie Huntington, a college psychology major home for the summer, creates a stir in the household and neighborhood by using her little knowledge of psychology on family and then the procedure is reversed and the family uses psychology on her.

The cast included Carol Kieffer, Harold Nye, Janet

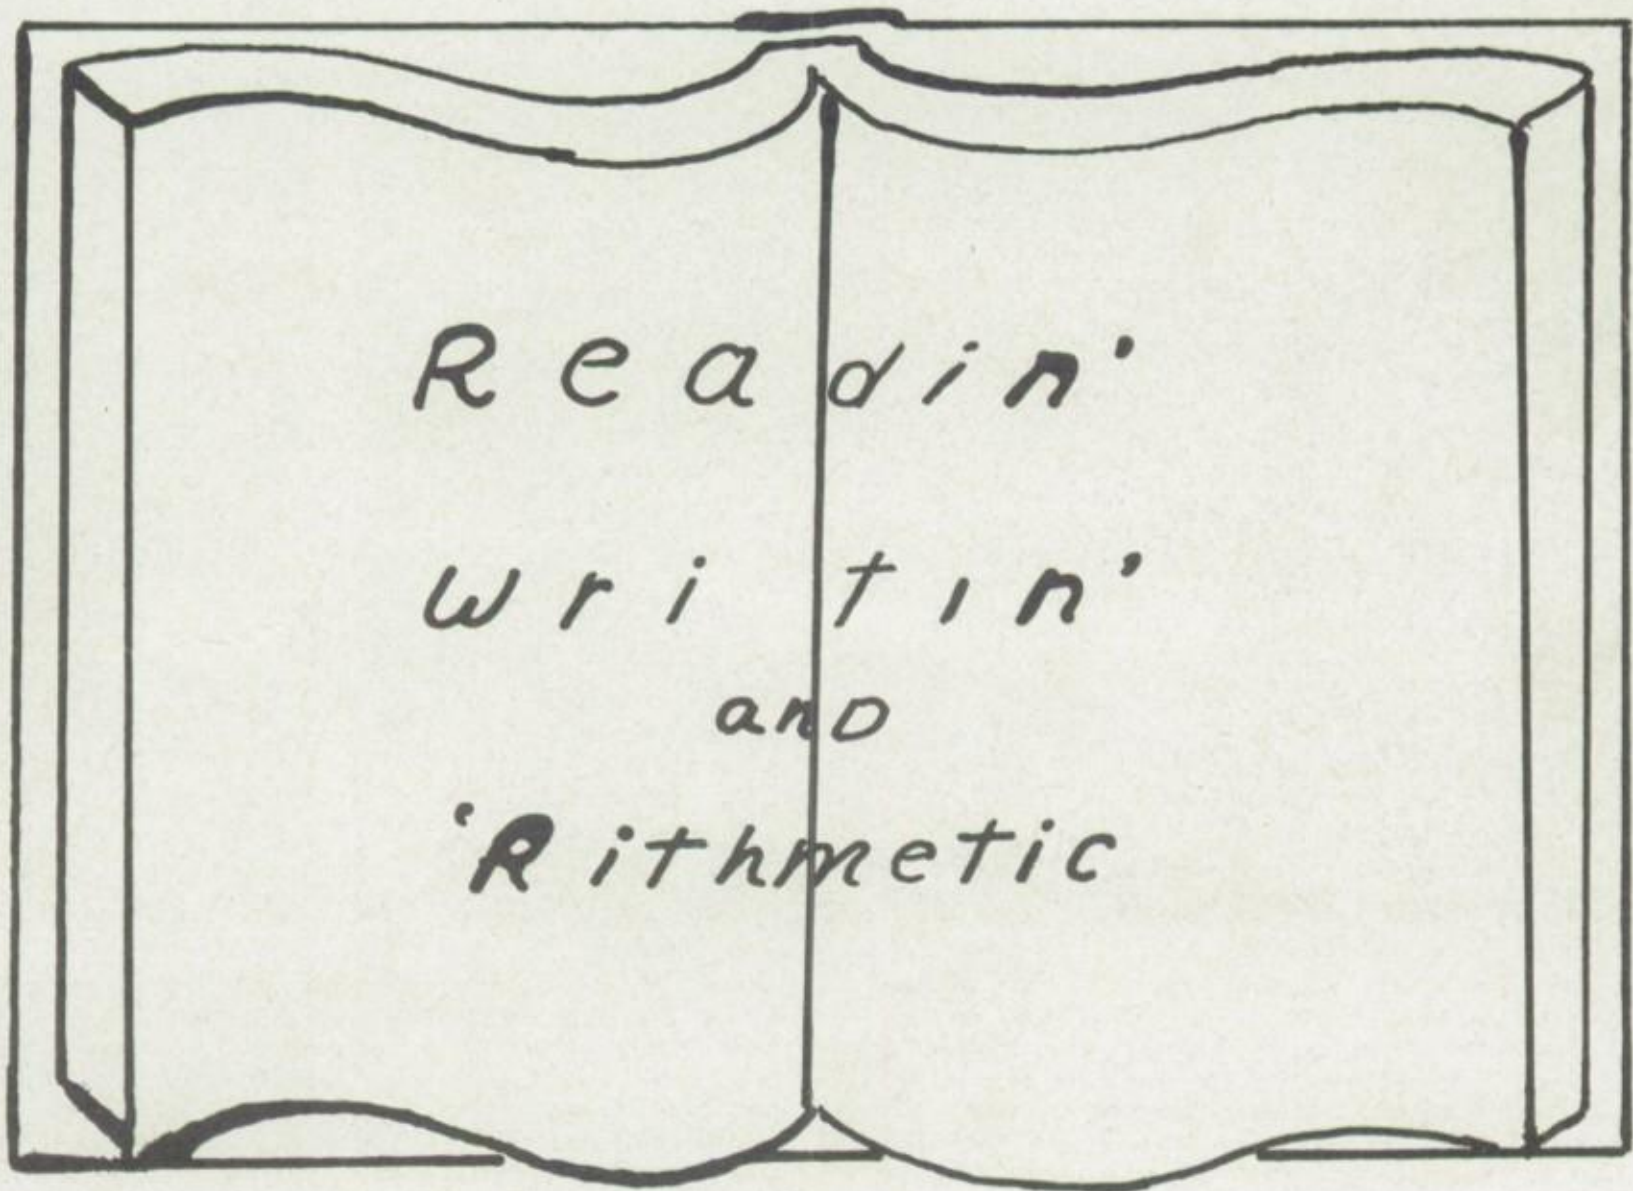

Nunn, Jerry Gaertner, Carolyn Clark, Mary Weaver, Lewis Campbell, Pat Butler, Joe Steyer, John Howe, Carol Reid, Hilda Grine, Arlene Walsh, Mary Dicken, Bill Peters, LaVerne Snyder, Carol Wolford, Bob Graham, and Nina Lewis.

The play was directed by Mrs. Irene Sharninghouse with Pat Butler and Hilda Grine as student directors. Stage managers were Glen Fruth, Norman Lewis and Jim Blake.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is composed of fourteen members: two from each of the upper four grades, two from the F. F. A., two from the F. H. A., and two from the Varsity A.

President Bob Good
 Vice President Lewis Campbell
 Secretary-Treasurer Barbara Good
 Reporter Sharyn Peters

The Student Council's work for the year consisted of sponsoring dances after the football and basketball games, planning the schedule of the high school parties, and sponsoring the Homecoming. At the homecoming, the Queen, Pat Emerine, was crowned by the co-captains, Carl Ziessler and Jim Warren, during the half-time of the Vanlue-Arcadia game. Arrangements were made by the Student Council for the Spring Prom which was held May 8, with Ernie Duffield furnishing the music.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Membership in the National Honor Society is open to Seniors and to Juniors at the end of the first semester. A faculty committee rates the students on leadership, scholarship, character, and service and if found satisfactory, the students are eligible for membership in the Hancock County Chapter of the National Society. A student may be dropped from this society by falling below standards in any one of the four points.

This year we have five seniors as members of the Society. They are Janet Boes, Shirley Rainey, Glen Saltzman, Jim Steyer, and Floyd Hissong.

At the spring banquet the new members are initiated and given their membership cards and pins. The new members this year are Nina Lewis, Mary Weaver, and Bill Peters.

The Arcadia F.F.A. Chapter completed the year with several outstanding activities being completed.

The chapter this year is celebrating its 25th anniversary with 28 active members. The chapter officers this year are: Jim Steyer, President; Bob Good, Vice-president; Joe Steyer, Treasurer; Robert Graham, Reporter; Dick Kelley, Sentinel; and Mr. Calvin Knight, Advisor.

We entered five contests at the State F.F.A. Convention and came home with several awards. Harold Nye won first place in the state farm shop contest and received a trip to the national F.F.A. convention at Kansas City. Joe Steyer attended this event also. Jim Steyer won fifth judging Jerseys and Robert Graham won second in judging Merino sheep.

The chapter also won a gold rating in the state chapter contest for the first time in the history of the Arcadia Chapter.

We also had a member, Glen Saltzman, receive the State Farmer Degree.

Again this year we won first place in the county Parliamentary Procedure Contest and Gerald Marvin won the County Public Speaking Contest and placed fourth in the district contest.

The chapter for the first time in several years conducted a scrap drive, and were very successful, ranking fourth in the state in the amount collected per member.

Dave Corbin, Jim Steyer, Glen Saltzman, and Bill Diebley attended State F.F.A. Camp.

Gene Wedge won the swine showmanship contest at the County Fair.

We also had a Game Supper with the F.H.A., competed with other chapters in softball, and had a very successful Parent and Son Banquet.

F. H. A.

The Arcadia chapter of the Future Homemakers of America was sponsored by Mrs. Ladonna Stewart. The following were elected officers: President, Pat Emerine; Vice President, Janet Boes; Secretary, Janet Ziessler; Treasurer, Geraldine King; Historian, Mary Weaver; Parliamentarian, Norma Ritter; Song Leader, Janet Shiley; Reporter, Barbara Good; Student Council Representatives, Carol Reid and Janice Heinze.

In the early part of November, we initiated our Freshmen girls. Everyone had fun at the party, although the Freshmen had a hard time struggling through their part of the initiation.

A few days after hunting season opened the F. F. A. fellows entertained the girls at a Game Supper, held in the school building.

There are many different projects a member may choose to do during the summer to acquire a Home Economics degree, such as hand-crafts, sewing, cooking, baking, interior decorating or gardening.

Three degrees may be received by a member of F. H. A.: the degree earned through cooperation in club work; the degree in leadership; and the degree earned by completing projects and passing the tests given over these projects. The symbols of these degrees are the key for the Junior Homemaker, the scroll for the Chapter Homemaker, and the torch for the State Homemaker. These degrees are the symbols of honor, loyalty, and achievements of the individual toward the Future Homemakers of America.

Twice a year a bi-county Future Homemakers of America meeting is held. Our first meeting last fall was held at Mt. Blanchard and the spring meeting was held at McComb. Mary Weaver was elected treasurer of the bi-county organization.

F. H. A. sponsored the concession stand at the Vanlue football game last fall.

We, the Future Homemakers of America, are proud of our organization, and we face the future with warm courage and high hope.

AMERICAN JUNIOR RED CROSS

The Junior Red Cross this year packed boxes which were sent overseas. This is a yearly procedure. Each home-room was responsible for one box to fill. A representative from each home-room was chosen to take care of collecting the money and filling the box.

A county-wide council has been organized in Hancock County. The purpose of this council is to establish ways in which the members wish to appropriate the money they have collected. We have two representatives from our school on this council. They are Pat Butler and Jerry Gaertner. Pat Butler is vice-president of the council.

LIBRARY STAFF

SEATED: Mrs. Sharninghouse, Janet Ziessler, Carol Kuhn, Shirley Lenhart, Pat Butler.
STANDING: James Woodward, Nina Lewis, Tom Bickle, Ronald Stall, Carol Kieffer, Carol Reid.

The library staff consists of students chosen from the high school. Each librarian must work in the library at least one period a day to receive one-fourth unit credit. This year a number of new books have been added to the library and plans are being made to enlarge the room so that there will be more space for shelves and for some reading tables.

Mrs. Irene Sharninghouse, the faculty supervisor, is assisted by the student librarian, Carol Kuhn.

OPERETTA

SEATED: Patty Emerine, Carol Kuhn, Arlene Walsh, Shirley Lenhart, Dalores Campbell, Carol Reid, Mary Weaver, Janet Ziessler, Pat Butler.

CHOIR

The Arcadia Choir consisting of forty-one boys and girls in the upper three grades have been quite active this year under the direction of Mr. Pittenger.

Their first appearance was held on December 15, 1952. The choir with the other musical organizations had an annual Christmas Program at this time.

On January 24, 1953, many students from our choir went to Arlington where they participated in the County Music Festival.

For their final performance the choir chose the operetta, "In Gay Havana". The leads were to be taken by Arlene Walsh and Lewis Campbell. Because of the illness of Mr. Pittenger, the operetta was not presented this year.

The Girls' Glee Club is an organization composed of all the high school girls who are interested in music. The group has sung for an assembly program, Christmas program, and the baccalaureate services. Some members of the group were chosen to go to the County Music Festival. We rehearsed twice a week under the direction of Mr. Pittenger and were accompanied by Carol Reid. All the girls of the Glee Club took part in the Operetta.

BAND

The Arcadia Band, under the direction of Mr. Pittenger, is composed of 42 members ranging from the fifth grade through high school. We played for all the football games.

A few selections that we used for the football games were "Washington Post," "Victory March," and "School Song." Some of the various formations we used were "A" for Arcadia and "Hi" to welcome the other teams. We often made the first letter of the other school's name.

The band participated in the Fostoria Halloween Parade and the Homecoming festival at Liberty. The band entered a contest at McComb on March 13. There were several members selected from our band to play in the all-county band in the Music Festival which was held at Arlington in January. The following were selected: Pat Emerine, Janet Ziessler, Janet Shiley, Gertrude Marvin, Barbara Agnew, Patty Eisaman, Margie Plesec, Gerald Marvin, Billy Armbricht, Bill Switzer, Gene Snyder and Jane Van Driest.

The young students hold promise for a strong band in the future, but we will keenly feel the loss of our seniors, Pat Emerine and Janet Ziessler, who have been with the band ever since it was organized.

ORCHESTRA

The Arcadia School Orchestra is composed of eighteen members from the ninth grade through high school. Composing the orchestra are two violins, six clarinets, three trumpets, one trombone, two saxophones, one snare drum, one bass drum, and one accordion. Carol Reid is the accompanist.

The orchestra under the direction of Mr. Pittenger has played for several different programs such as the Senior Play, Junior Play, and the Commencement exercises.

We are proud of our orchestra and enjoy playing the many different compositions. We will keenly feel the loss of our Seniors, Pat Emerine, Peggy Fox, Janet Ziessler, Janet Boes, Glen Saltzman, Floyd Hissong.

We practice once a week according to a rotating schedule set up on class time.

SOPHOMORE ENSEMBLE

JUNIOR ENSEMBLE

Pat Butler, Carol Reid, Hilda Grine, Carol Kieffer, Pat Emerine, Mary Dicken, Arlene Walsh, Sharlet Cook, Janet Nunn; accompanist, Mary Weaver.

The Junior Ensemble consists of nine girls from the Junior class and one Senior. The ensemble appeared in assembly programs, P. T. A., and the Christmas Program.

The ensemble sang under the leadership of Mr. Pittenger and was accompanied by Mary Weaver.

Shirley Lenhart, Marilyn Plotts, Carol Kieffer, Barbara Good, and Janet Shiley were the five cheerleaders chosen by the student body to lead the yells during football and basketball games this season. Dressed in the school colors, red and white, the cheerleaders were a great inspiration to the team during each game.

Although they had many good yells to help the team, their favorite yells were: 1-2-3-4, Fite Team Fite, W-I-N, Center End, and Go Varsity Go.

The five Junior High Cheerleaders, dressed in their colors of blue and white, cheered their team to victory through all their games up until the semi-finals which they lost to Cory-Rawson.

Their favorite yells were: Yea Blue, Clap Clap; With an "A"; Rickety, Rackety, Rust; and We're With You Team.

The Arcadia Redskins opened their 16-game schedule with Amsden on November 7. The high-light of the season was when the team upset a highly-favored Cory-Rawson team in the opening round of the County-tournament. The Redskins almost pulled another major upset when they were tied 12-12 with the high-scoring McComb team going into the last four minutes of the fourth quarter. McComb won, however, 23-13.

The Seniors who played their last games were Bob Good, Glen Saltzman, Jim Warren and Jim Steyer.

Although our boys were defeated in each of their games, much can be said about their ability to co-operate and their good sportsmanship. They played hard, but were plagued with many injuries early in the season.

We wish to extend our appreciation and gratitude to our coach, Robert Robinson, whose guidance and character training will be of far more importance to the boys than whether the score recorded a loss or a win.

Jim Warren was the only Senior chosen for the all-county football team this year.
